ROOMMATE AGREEMENT - CO-TENANTS

Address of Home: _____

Name of Landlord: _____

Names of Roommates on the Rental Agreement: _____

This roommate agreement is to assist people living together to understand and agree upon their rights, responsibilities and relationship. It is recommended that any changes during your tenancy be updated in writing in this agreement. Tenants and Roommates will do nothing that contravenes the Rental Agreement.

Existing Rental Agreement

1. The Roommates above have signed a Rental Agreement with _____ (the Landlord(s)) for the unit on the _____ day of _____ month _____ year. This is a month to month agreement, which continues until legally ended by one roommate ("Roommate"), Roommates or Landlord(s).
2. Roommates are jointly & severally liable for all duties & obligations as a tenant except where this contravenes the Agreement.

Rent

1. Roommates will pay the rent to the Landlord as agreed in the Rental Agreement.
2. If a Roommate's failure to pay results in late fees or costs, the Roommate who failed to pay is liable for these costs. Remaining Roommates may pay that person's share and may recover such payment(s) as damages for breach of this contract.
3. Failure to pay rent can lead to eviction.

Security Deposit

1. The security deposit will be paid according to the Rental Agreement.
2. If one Roommate moves out before the others and gives a forwarding address in writing, their portion of the security deposit will be returned to them either 30 days after a new Roommate moves in or 30 days after the security deposit is returned to the remaining Roommates, if there is no new Roommate, whichever is earlier. Remaining Roommates are not obligated to recover the security deposit if the Landlord(s) fail to return it.

Damage

Individual Roommates are liable for their own damages and those caused by their guests. If a cause cannot be determined, the damages will be split equally between Roommates.

Utilities

1. Utilities not included in rent (utility overages) are to be shared equally between Roommates.
2. If one Roommate fails to pay their share of the utility overages the other Roommates will pay that person's share and may recover such payment(s) as damages for breach of this contract. The Roommate who didn't pay will reimburse the other Roommates within 10 days.
3. Failure to pay utilities can lead to eviction.

Terminating the Tenancy

1. The terminating Roommate will give notice as described in the Rental Agreement.
2. In a month-to-month tenancy proper written notice given by one Roommate ends the Tenancy Agreement for all Roommates.
3. The vacating Roommate will provide a forwarding address in writing to the remaining Roommates and the Landlord(s).
4. If a Roommate (the "Defaulting Roommate") causes another Roommate to incur additional costs or suffer loss or damage by reason of breaching this Agreement, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, by failing to pay Rent when due, failing to pay his/her share of utility overages or other services to the premises that the Roommates are obligated to pay, or doing or failing to do anything that causes the Landlord to terminate the tenancy or lawfully retain any part of the security deposit, the Defaulting Roommate shall promptly reimburse the other Roommate(s) for such costs, loss or damage.
